Think I'll go out to Al-ber-ta. Weat-her's good there in the fall.

I got some friends that I can go to work-ing for.

Still I wish you'd change your mind, if I asked you one more time.

But we've been through that a hundred times or more.

REFRAIN:

2nd VERSE: If I get there before the snow flies and if things are goin' good,
 You could meet me if I sent you down the fare.
 But by then it would be winter. There ain't too much for you to do.
 And those winds sure can blow cold way out there.
