

What a Wonderful World by George David Weiss & George Douglas

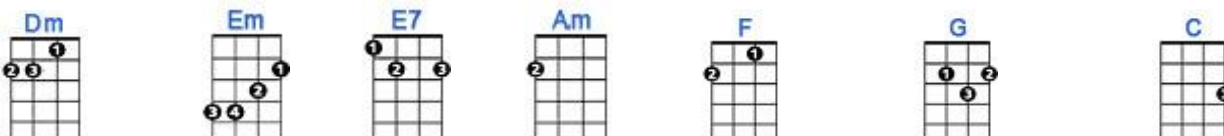

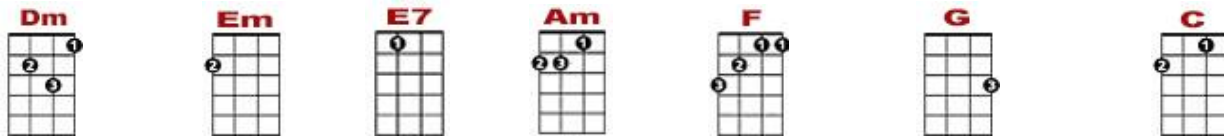

I see trees of green, red roses, too, I see them bloom for me and for you,

The bright blessed days and the dark sacred nights, and I think to myself, "What a wonderful world."

The colors of the rainbow, so pretty in the sky, are al-so on the faces of people passing by.

I see friends shakin' hands, sayin', "How do you do?" When they're really sayin', "I love you."

I hear babies cry, and watch them grow. They'll learn so much more than I will ever know,

And I think to myself, "What a wonderful world." Yes I think to myself, "What a wonderful world."
